

I disagree with these comments. I feel we need the three classes of licenses and we need to retain the code requirement for general and extra class. I would support moving the advanced class operators up to extra as an automatic upgrade and realigning other grandfathered class licenses to the current structure.

Marc W0WCH